

POWER OF ATTORNEY AUTHORIZING BILL EQUITY TO NEGOTIATE LEGAL BILLS

My name is _____ and I have one or more legal bills (collectively, the “Legal Bills”) that I want to dispute and correct, using Bill Equity, LLC to provide bill negotiation services.

In order to enable Bill Equity, LLC to contact the law firm’s finance or billing department (the “Law Firm”) on my behalf, I am entering into this Power of Attorney Authorizing Bill Equity to Negotiate Legal Bills (the “Power of Attorney”).

1. I hereby constitute and appoint Bill Equity, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company (together with its agents, employees, managers, officers, independent contractors, successors and assigns, “Bill Equity”), with full power of substitution, as my true and lawful attorney-in-fact and agent in connection with the Legal Bills provided to Bill Equity.

2. This Power of Attorney shall be in full force and effect until the earlier of the following: (a) the day I terminate the Power of Attorney by sending written notice to info@billequity.com, or (b) the day the Legal Bills are negotiated and Bill Equity is paid in full for its services.

3. I hereby authorize Bill Equity to do and perform each and every act and thing deemed necessary or desirable by Bill Equity in connection with negotiating discounts on the Legal Bills, or securing corrections to Legal Bills, including contacting billing departments and finance professionals by telephone or in writing, sending Law Firms copies of my Legal Bills, telling Law Firms that you are negotiating on my behalf, and disclosing to the Law Firms information I have provided to you if requested by the Law Firm.

I have signed this Power of Attorney this [___] day of [_____],]aaaaaa_

Complete only if bills are for another person, for instance a child or someone over whom you have guardianship: I am signing as a legal representative for the client, I am the legal representative for _____ because of my relationship as _____.
